Published once a year, NJ Korean American Yellowpages Directory is where Korean Americans go to find NJ Korean American businesses. It contains useful contact informations for State Government Departments and other public and private organizations. 10,000 full color copies are printed at the beginning of the year, providing advertisers with low cost and effective advertisement throughout the year. It is distributed through all major supermarkets and other well established businesses. It is a great way to make sure your business stands out before the NJ Korean American community.
